INSPECT A HOUSE

SATURDAY
SEPTEMBER 8TH

PRESCOTT, AZ

AZ ASHI INSPECT - A - HOUSE

COURSE CONTENT

At this special Inspect A House we will feature not one, but TWO homes! These are not your typical tract homes. With a combination of old and new systems and components installed in each house, as well as numerous homeowner modifications, inspectors will be challenged by these unique properties. Come and join us in the cool pines to learn about the different types of construction and complexities that exist in some homes. This is one you won't want to miss!

House number 1:

Built in the early eighties, perched atop a hill and having numerous additions over the years including a recently completed full remodel, this home will be very interesting to inspect.

House number 2:

Built in the mid seventies and nestled in the pines with decks, exterior stairs, walk out basement, modified carport, and a heating system not usually found in a typical Arizona home, will make inspecting this home an intense challenge. This home may qualify to be another "humbler".
